Foreword

A movement soared and "black people" spread the word that we will let the world know that we are proud of our "blackness."

The word black has usually had an evil or morbid connotation. "Black Magic" means "evil magic" and black is always worn for funerals.

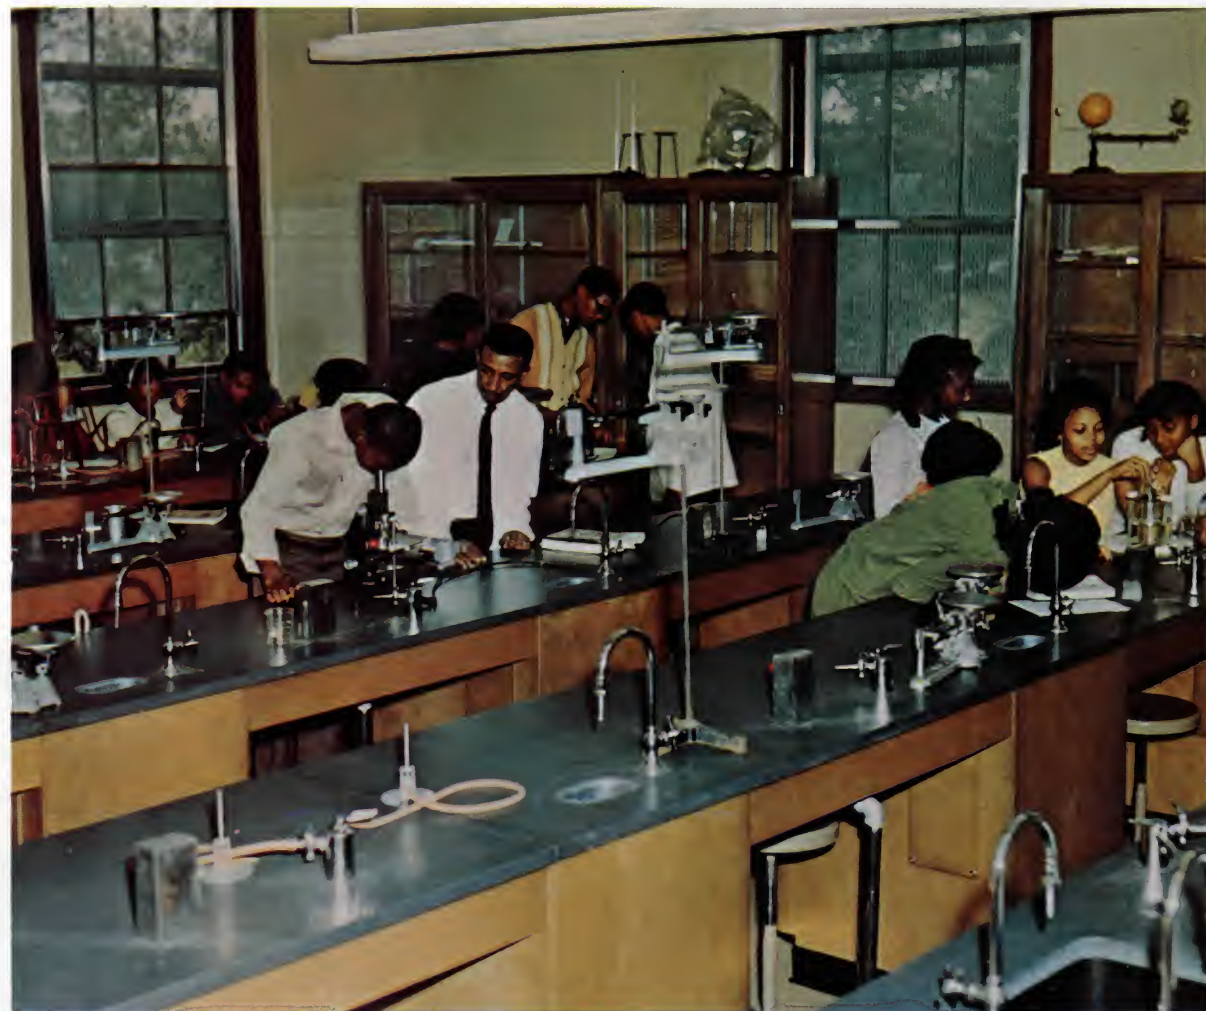

Now the word has taken on a new meaning and the LeDiable Bleu staff has chosen for the theme "Ebene Majeste." A man cannot take pride in himself until he realizes his worth (and that includes his color), that all he is and wants to be is valuable in itself. Unfortunately, "black people" have always lived with the stigma of shame attached to their color. Perhaps with an understanding of the significance of our color and a re-awakened pride in our color, we will be able all the sooner to transcend it (because others will necessarily have to reckon with our sense of pride and our inherent dignity). Only then will we sincerely believe that we have a place in society. After this realization of who we are is established there is no task too great for us to perform.

It is the sincere wish of the staff that you too will think as Langston Hughes did when he wrote "They'll see how beautiful I am, and be ashamed . . . I, too, am America."

*"Bow down my soul in worship very low
And in the holy silences be lost."*

—Claude McKay

As We Saw It . . .

We saw the campus flood with students in September creating an overcrowded condition which prompted the Dillard men to take a stand—"We shall not be moved!" "Hell no, we won't go!" We complained but 45 women invaded the former male citadel, Hartzell Hall. We watched our flag football team triumph over Xavier in two successive games. We listened as Mrs. Marcus Garvey explained the truth and reasoning accompanying her late husband's "Back to Africa" movement. To explain the "unnatural" occurrence of so many F's, we turned to the Ouija board for advice. We were entertained as Roy Petty, a Dillard grad, sang from his repertoire of Jazz and popular music. And Dillard's own soul sister, Margie Joseph, cut her first records. We witnessed three equally outstanding productions by the Dillard Players' Guild and looked forward to the staging of the Three African Plays. We witnessed our mighty Blue Devil basketball team as they romped from gym to gym because we had no place to call our own. We saw the Dillard student recognize the beauty in being black when the coronation was entitled "Ebony in Essence", and LeDiable Bleu chose "Ebony Majestic" as its theme. We saw a totally student-initiated idea turn into an extravaganza in the form of the Afro-American Arts Festival—the first of its kind on a college campus.

We were made aware of the task forces (The Study of the Future) being conducted in efforts to upgrade our university. The campus got a face lifting with additions to Stern and Rosenwald halls. The Greeks had a hard time convincing the personnel committee of their worth. Our young ladies got new rules and regulations but they have to reveal their source of entertainment. We also got new dormitory matrons—good or bad?

We saw Dillard take on a different look in the hearts, minds, and spirits of the students. We saw a new, better, and potentially wonderful Dillard University.

Dedication

To acknowledge and commend the fervor and enthusiasm with which he has worked as Dean of the Chapel and Dean of Students we dedicate this LeDiable Bleu to Rev. Robert L. Polk.

Dean Polk has presented a new look in leadership to the Dillard community. He has offered the companionship for which youth longs, a chance for endless discussion, but exercised guidance and discipline with a persistent firmness which has won for him the admiration of all about him. He is an inspiration to the leaders and a challenge to the apathetic. He has succeeded in instilling within us an awareness of ourselves and a concern for others.

With a deep sense of pride and genuine affection we dedicate the 1968 LeDiable Bleu to Dean Robert L. Polk.

Tribute

The few years a student spends in college are forever in his memory. One member of the Dillard faculty who has left an ineradicable impression in the minds of all whom she has taught is Mrs. Joyce T. Verrett. Mrs. Verrett is one of Dillard's most devoted and experienced educators. The 1968 LeDiable Bleu salutes her perseverance and stamina in establishing an inspiring and productive atmosphere for the Dillard student.

"I cannot praise, for you have passed from praise, I have no tinted thoughts to paint you true, But I can feel and I can write the word, The best of me is but the least of you"

The President's Message

DILLARD UNIVERSITY
NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA 70122

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Fellow Students:

It is my opinion that for nearly a century Dillard University including its predecessors has been conducting programs which for its students were relevant to the existing conditions. But conditions have been changing very rapidly, particularly during the last decade, and changes in the way of life in America and in the world will continue -- hopefully at a more rapid rate.

How can Dillard University, with wisdom and understanding, keep abreast of the changing needs of its students? As you know, Trustees, Faculty and Students, with the aid of many Consultants, are now in the midst of a thorough consideration of this most important question because we all realize that Dillard University must remain a relevant institution.

Relevance is hardly definable at any one point in time. For those of you who will be leaving the University this year, I hope that you have found your experiences here meaningful and relevant to your needs. For those of you who will remain, I invite your best thought and effort in enabling the University to continue to be thoroughly relevant to your needs.

Sincerely yours,

A. W. Dent
President

Delta Sigma Theta

History: Delta Sigma Theta was founded at Howard University, in 1913. The twenty-two young women who were its founders envisioned an organization of college women that would minimize the purely Social aspects of Sorority life.

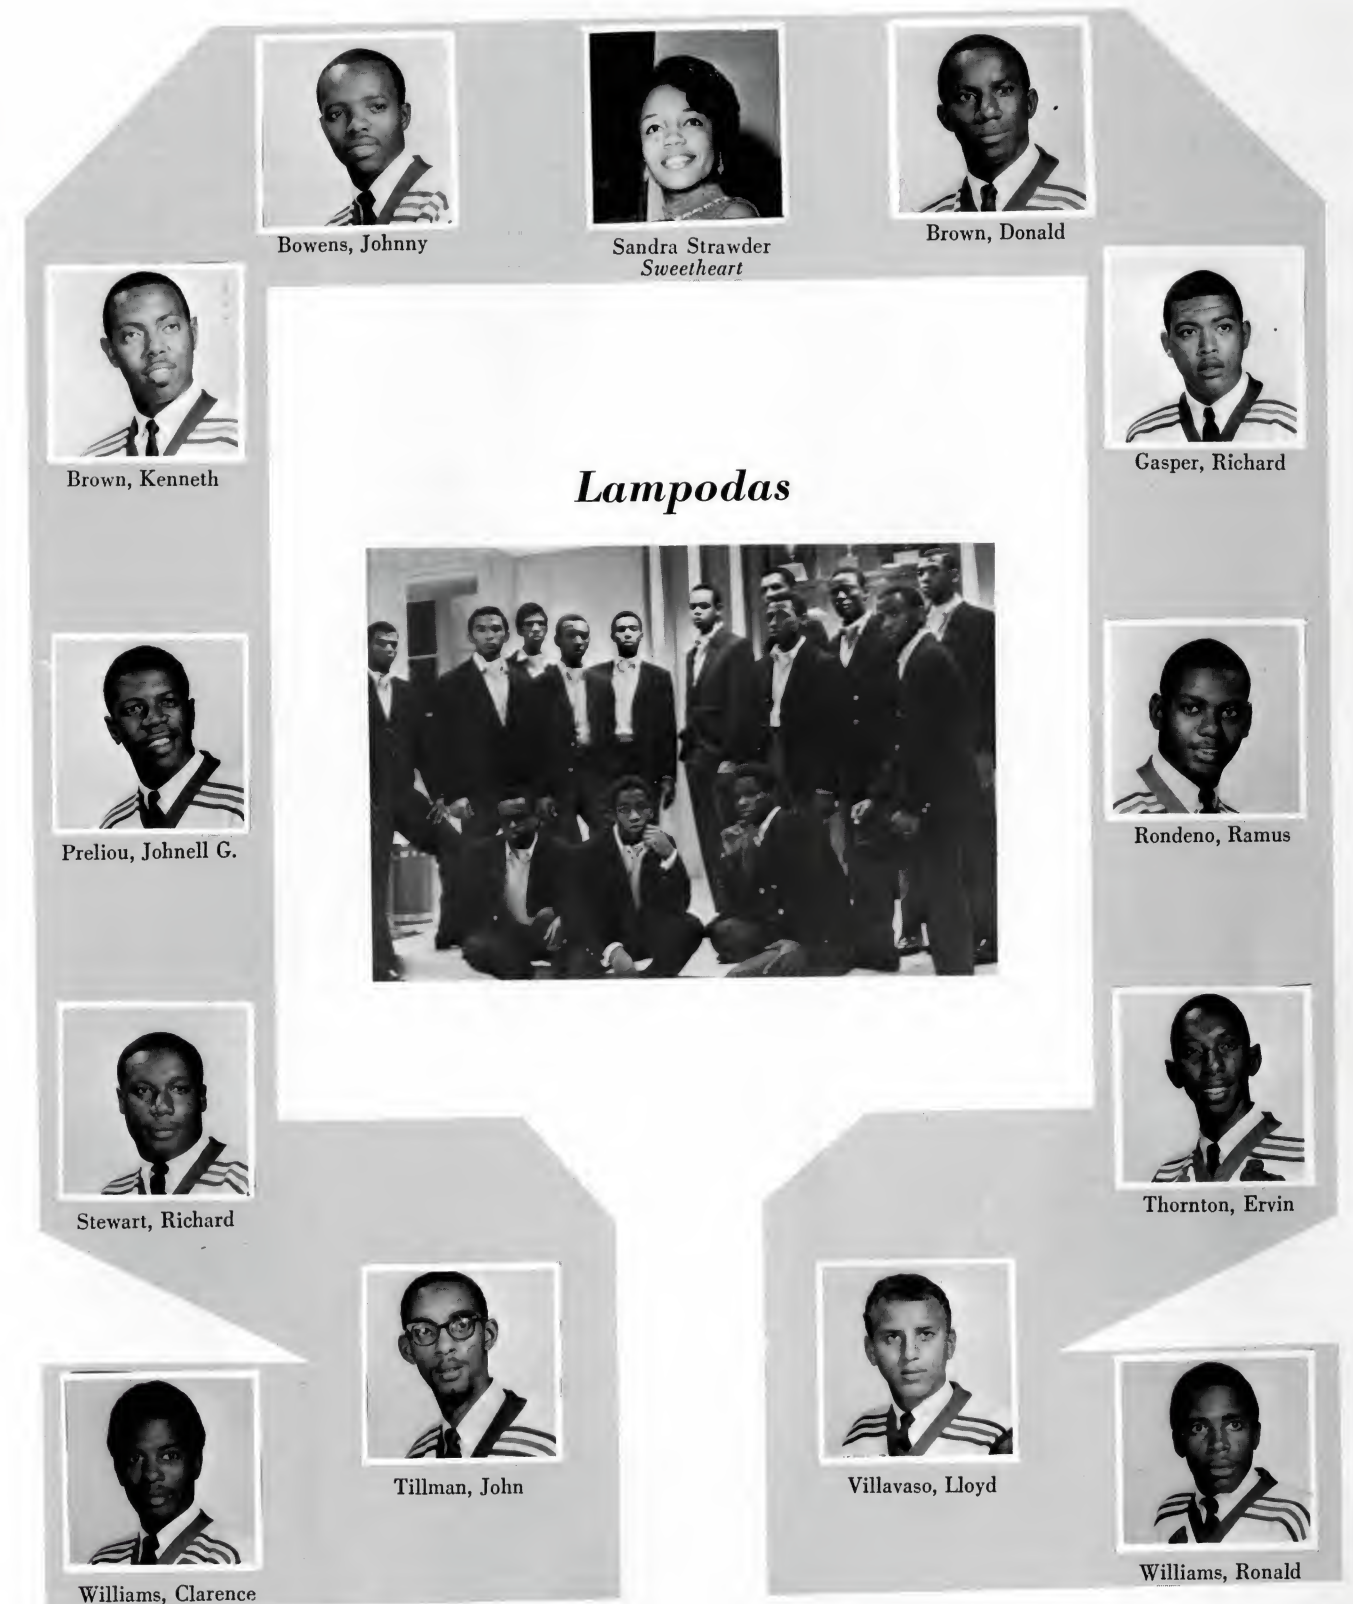

Today, women of all races and faiths who meet the requirements in character, scholarship, and citizenship responsibility are welcomed into membership in Delta Sigma Theta. From the small original group, Delta has grown to embrace 20,000 women with 240 chapters in 46 states and the Republic of Haiti.

Our Motto is "Friendship is essential to the Soul". With this motto the founders also set forth

History: Zeta Phi Beta Sorority had its beginning at Howard University, Jan. 16, 1920. Members of Phi Beta Sigma, Charles Robet and Samuel Taylor spoke to a young lady, Arizona Cleavor, concerning the establishment of a sister organization at the university. The young lady willingly accepted the task and immediately began to work upon it.

Thus as a result, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded as a sister organization of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

*To fling my arms wide
In some place of the sun,
To whirl and to dance
Till the white day is done.
Then rest at cool evening
Beneath a tall tree
While night comes on gently,
Dark like me—
This is my dream!*

"Creativity Based On Objective Fact"

Staff members converge at the last minute to meet the deadline.

The 1967-68 LeDiable Bleu has been composed according to a two-fold principle underlying the objectives of the college annual as approved by The Associated Collegiate Press Association: (1) that the yearbook be different and distinctive from all previous yearbooks without violating revered traditions and good taste, and (2) that the yearbook be different and distinctive for all yearbooks on other campuses.

Preparations For The Traditionally Festive Christmas Season At Dillard

1st Afro — American Arts Festival

Going to greet the man, "Cannonball".

During Negro History Week, Feb. 12-19, the Afro-Americans for Progress, a new student organization at Dillard, sponsored an arts festival—the first of its kind at an American university—"to explore and expose students and the wider community to the Arts of Afro-Americans and to provide a medium through which Black people could become more aware of their heritage."

Dave Dennis and Alfred Dean Irby, president and vice-president of the organization, deserve the highest accolades as spearhead-organizers of this event which featured Dr. John O. Killens, novelist and writer-in-residence-instructor at Fisk University, as keynote speaker. The festival culminated in a concert by the "Cannonball" Adderley Quintet, sponsored by the Lyceum Program.

The most exciting highlight of the year, the festival examined the roots of Afro-American experience in this country through a variety of activities that included fashion, graphic arts, music (gospel) and drama, poetry, movies, discussions, dance, psychedelic lighting, workshops, and particularly from New Orleans a Jazz Funeral March and the Second Line.

The festival attracted a wide assortment of spectators and participants from the campus, the New Orleans community, and from outside the state.

The Adderley meets Dr. Hall.

The various events of the festival were realized mostly through free contributions of time and talent from many persons on and off campus and through the cooperation of organizations and departments in the university. Represented from Dillard were the Dillard Players' Guild, the Music Department, and the Humanities Division Film Program. Other participants included the Free Southern Theater, Clark Senior High School, Eluard Burt and his Afro-Jazz group, Porgy Jones' Quintet, Ebenezer Baptist Church and the Calvacade of Gospel Stars, Miss Rene Habedi of Johannesburg, South Africa, Mr. Richard Mboshu of Biafra, and Mrs. Oretha Haley, among others.

Dillard students greet "The Cannonball", Julian "Cannonball" Adderley.

"Sinclair Drake at the Festival"

"And The Festival Went On And On . . ."

"The Festival is a welcome for everyone"

"Danny Barker in Action"

"Free Southern Theater dancers creating beauty in composition"

Dr. Killens exhorts Afro-Americans to be "best students on campus."
